Participant/Presenters

Annie Beckham, LCSW, ATR completed her post-graduate work in Art Therapy at Pratt Institute. She is currently a Therapist/Consultant at AMHC specializing in child, family and adolescent outpatient services.

Jennifer Blanchard, LCSW-C, RPT is a graduate of the University of Maryland at Baltimore School of Social Work. She is in practice as a Registered Play Therapist working with children, adolescents, and adults, and she has extensive training in sandtray therapy. Jennifer has experience as a school counselor, working collaboratively with students and their families, teachers, and other professionals in a supportive team approach. She strives to promote resiliency in her clients, as well as social and emotional wellness.

Patricia Bradstreet, LCPC-C, RPT has 35 years of experience working in public education, she is currently employed as a school counselor in a K-8 school. Patti is in private practice in Brewer working with children, adolescents and families.

Sue Carroll Duffy, Psy.D., RPT-S is a psychologist working at Pleasant Point Health Center and in private practice. She is an RPT-S and founder of By The Sea Seminars. Dr. Duffy's fun is developing the Moving Stories play therapy method which integrates bibliotherapy, sandtray therapy, and play therapy. She has a new interest in neurofeedback and has just begun the certification process.

Serita Corey-Childs, LCSW, RPT-S has worked in Adult Crisis Services (suicide hotline and mobile outreach), Community Outpatient and Residential Mental Health and Treatment Level Foster Care. Currently she is employed by Harrington Family Health Center where she sees both Children and adults.

Stephanie Francis, LCPC, RPT, NCC has 37 years in education—the last 14 years as a school counselor at the elementary and middle school level. Presently, she is a preschool to grade 5 School Counselor, using child-centered play therapy and Theraplay. Work with teachers and parents is also an area of interest.

Robyn L. Greene, LCPC has worked at Northeast Occupational Exchange for 14 years. Her specialty is family reunification and abuse counseling. She developed and facilitates a non-offending parent group for parents of sexually abused children and a non-offending partner of domestic violence group. She teaches parenting skills (Incredible years model).

Jeanie McPherson, LCSW, works with children, adolescents, and adults in her private practice in Ellsworth Maine. Jeanie's primary clinical focus is assessment and treatment of complex trauma, and the many secondary conditions that result including anxiety, depression, traumatic grief and dissociation.

Connie McVey, LCSW, is an outpatient psychotherapist at Acadia Hospital, working with children and adults. She has designed and leads the 8 week Grief, Loss & Healing therapy group at Acadia. Other specialty areas are EMDR, Ericksonian Clinical Hypnosis, Play Therapy, Sandtray Therapy and integrating neurobiology and therapy.

Amanda Schaeffer, LMSW-CC, received her BFA in Studio Art from the USM and she graduated from the University of Maine with her MSW. Amanda is currently working as an outpatient therapy consultant at Atlantic Mental Health Center in Calais. She is particularly interested in play, experiential, and expressive therapies.

Kandi Robertson, LCSW has been practicing for the past 6 years after graduating from The University of Maine. She has a mixed caseload currently at the Harrington Family Health Center. Kandi is working toward her Registered Play Therapy certification.
